Debbi Fields was born on 18 September 1956 in Oakland, California, the youngest of five laughters. As a child, she was so good at making cookies that her sisters called her 'the Cookie Kid'. Her family was poor, so Debbi got a part-time job when she was thirteen,
S	elping at the local sports stadium. For this she was paid just five dollars a week, but he was able to save some of this money and use it to buy butter, vanilla and chocolate hips to make cookies.
g t	In 1976, when she was only nineteen, Debbi got married. However, she didn't want to be "just a housewife", so the following year, she decided to open a cookie shop, after getting a $25,000 loan from the bank. She was so confident of the quality of her cookies that, on the opening day of business, she simply went outside and started handing out cookies for free, as a special offer! She was right to be confident — her cookies soon became hugely popular, first in California, and then throughout the whole country.
b a	oday Debbi has nine hundred shops and bakeries in the USA, and seventy-five more in ther countries. Her business is worth over $45 million a year and her success has rought her several business awards. Not only that — she is also now a well-known uthor! Her 'Cookie Secrets' became the first cookery book ever to reach No. 1 in the New York Times' best-seller list! She has also appeared on several TV chat shows.

READING 2 (Items 5 - 10)

Read the following two e-mails. Then, for each item, choose the correct option:  ${\bf A}$ ,  ${\bf B}$  or  ${\bf C}$ . Text  ${\bf 1}$

Hi Monique,

How are you? I arrived back in Canada on Sunday evening. Sorry I didn't write sooner — it was a long and tiring flight! But after resting for a couple of days, I feel much better  $\dots$

Anyway, I want to thank you and your parents again for a lovely holiday. It was really interesting, especially because we didn't just stay in Paris all the time, but went to visit other historic cities like Rouen as well — and our trip to Chartres was fantastic!

Thanks, too, for helping me to choose presents for my family. My mother really liked the book of traditional French recipes I gave her— she says she's going to try all of them! And my father was very happy with the scarf I bought him — he wears it all the time!

Anyway, I'll write again soon. Hope you are all well...

Kathy

Text 2

Hi Kathy,

Many thanks for your message. Glad to hear that you got home safe, and that your parents liked the presents...

I've been looking through all the photos that I took during your stay. There are hundreds of them! We certainly managed to do a lot of things in two weeks! Anyway, I'll send you all the best ones next week. There's one in particular — of you and me at the royal palace — that I'm sure you'll love!

But there is one thing. I've noticed that I haven't got any good pictures of that day we all spent on the river. Remember, when Aunt Josephine nearly fell in the water! Could you check the photos that you took, and send me one or two, please? Thanks!

Anyway, I must finish now. My dad and I are taking grandma to the hospital  $\dots$  Don't worry, she's OK — it's nothing serious...

Best wishes to all the family, Monique
